

AUSTRALIAN
RESUSCITATION
COUNCIL (VIC BRANCH)

Australian Resuscitation Council (VIC BRANCH)

"FROM KERBSIDE TO CRITICAL CARE, MAINTAINING THE CHAIN FOR SURVIVAL"

When: Saturday 27th October 2018. 0900HRS – 1700HRS

Where: AMREP Education Centre, Alfred Hospital
55 Commercial Road Prahran

Fees: Early Bird registration (till 17th August) $200
Standard registration $250

To Book: www.trybooking.com/wkwi

Overview

Australian Resuscitation Council Vic Branch State conference is designed to inform and educate all who work as first aiders, first aid trainers, paramedics, nurses, doctors and allied health professionals. Our conference this year focuses “From Kerbside to Critical Care: Maintaining the Chain of Survival,” some focus will be on the Bourke Street mass casualty incident.

SOME OF OUR PRESENTERS

- Professor Paul Jennings, Chair; ARC Victorian Branch
- Tom Howell, National Training Manager Premium Health
- Police Spokesperson
- Professor Michael Reade, Consultant Intensivist and Professor of Military Medicine and Surgery, University of Queensland
- Brett Drummond, Intelligence Coordinator Ambulance Victoria
- Professor Peter Morley, Academic Specialist, Medical Education; Honorary, Medicine – Royal Melbourne Hospital
- Doctor Helen E Stergiou, Emergency & Trauma Physician Alfred Hospital
- Doctor Rosalind Case, Director of Clinical Programs ISN Psychology
- Jenny Lumsden, Clinical Nurse Consultant and Director General Health Reserves – Air Force

Conference Topics

- Melbourne’s mass casualty incident first aid response in Bourke Street
- Haemorrhage control and the use of tourniquets
- Coordination of a mass casualty event and emergency response
- Mass casualty management in the hospital setting
- Management principles of the traumatic cardiac arrest
- Paediatric trauma management
- Holistic care
- Psychological needs of patients following a cardiac arrest
- ICU reception and management of the trauma patient

